COPARTNERSHIP.

Copartnership Notice.
THE undersigned having formed a Copartnership under the firm name of
J. W. STOCKWELL & CO.,
Will carry on the manufacture and sale of
HYDRAULIC CEMENT PIPE,
In calibre from 3 to 24 inches,
FOR DRAINS, SEWERS, STENCH-TRAPS, MILL FLUMES, CHIMNEYS, WELLS, HOT and COLD AIR FLUES, &c., —AT THE—
Portland Cement Pipe Works,
163 Danforth Street,
PORTLAND, ME.
These Pipes are altogether ahead of those made of brick, because they are smoother, more durable, easily laid, and cheaper. They cost less than half as much as lead or iron, and do not rust or corrode in any length of time, but will deliver water any distance, as pure and sweet as when it leaves the fountain's head.
They are used in New York City, Albany, Brooklyn, Hartford, Springfield, and many other cities, towns and villages.
The Western R. R., Connecticut River, Rockville, and Hartford & Springfield Railroads use them for culverts, &c.
Justin Sackett, Superintendent of Streets, Springfield, Mass.; Milton A. Clyde, R. R. Contractor; Edwin Chase, Civil Engineer, Holyoke, Mass.; Daniel Harris, Esq., Pres. Conn. R. R.; Sam'l Bowles, Esq., Smith & Wesson, Wasson & Co., Jessup & Laflin, Paper Manufacturers, Westfield, Mass., among many others, can tell of its merits.
Engineers, Architects, Manufacturers and Business men who have used or seen this Pipe, adopt it, for they KNOW it is a GOOD THING.
Samples can be seen at HANSON & DOW'S, 54 1-2 Union Street, Portland, Me., our authorized Agents. Orders left there or at the Factory will receive prompt attention.
J. W. STOCKWELL, CALVIN STOCKWELL.

French Language and Literature
TAUGHT BY
PROF. LEON DE MONTIER,
FROM France; graduated in the Academie de Paris Universitie de France. Late Professor in the French Language and Literature in the McGill University and High School of Montreal, Canada East.
Prof. LEON de MONTIER begs leave to say that he is prepared to give Lessons in the above important branch of modern education, both in Schools and private families. Classes may also be formed by gentlemen and ladies desirous of acquiring a thorough knowledge and the fluent speaking of the French Language.
Prof. L. de M.'s method of teaching French will smooth in a great part the difficulties of beginners, whilst to more advanced pupils he will impart a proficiency of speaking, together with the pure Parisian accent, so deservedly esteemed by all well educated people.
Nothing shall be wanting on the part of Prof. L. de M. to enable his pupils to make the most rapid progress, and by his exertions to speak the French language in the shortest time.
Applications as to the terms may be made by letter or otherwise, at 52 Free St, or at Messrs Bailey & Noyes Book store, Exchange st.

The Maine State Press,

Published this morning, contains the Memorial of the Shipbuilders of Maine to Congress; the report of Mr. Pike's Committee on the Murder of Maine Soldiers in South Carolina; the closing proceedings of the Maine Legislature, with a complete catalogue of the Acts and Resolves passed this session; the closing proceedings of the Thirty-ninth Congress, sketches of Mr. Johnson's very latest Veto Messages, and an account of the organization of the Fortieth Congress; Maine Election News—all one way, as usual; Edgerly's testimony on his trial for participation in the Saco Murder; Mr. Nasby's last letter, and other miscellany; market reports, shipping news, &c., &c.

The Compromise on Wool and Woollens.

The only measure affecting the tariff which the Thirty-ninth Congress was able to agree upon, was Mr. Bingham's tariff on wool and woollens, passed by the House on the 27th of July last. The bill is simply extracted from the general tariff bill passed by the House on the 12th of July, and would have been superfluous had that measure prevailed. The tariff upon clothing wools valued abroad at 12 cents or less was 3 cents per pound; valued at 13 to 24 cents, 6 cents per pound. The new tariff raises these rates to 10 cents per pound and 10 per cent. ad valorem. On combing wools the tariff was 12 cents per pound and 10 per cent.; and is reduced to 10 cents per pound and 10 per cent. for wools valued at 32 cents or less. On carpet wools, the tariff ranged from 3 to 6 cents per pound, and is raised uniformly to 6 cents. On sheepskins the duty is raised from 20 to 30 per cent. ad valorem, and on woollen rags from 3 to 12 cents per pound. On woollen cloths the tariff is changed from 24 cents per pound and 40 per cent. ad valorem to 50 cents per pound and 35 per cent. Blankets, yarns, &c., on which the duties were 24 cents per pound and from 25 to 30 per cent. ad valorem, are classified according to their cost abroad, the dividing points being 40, 60, and 80 cents, and charged with 20, 30, 40 and 50 cents per pound and 35 per cent. ad valorem. Bunting instead of 50 per cent. is charged 20 cents per square yard and 35 per cent.—On dress goods the duties are increased 2 cents a yard and 10 per cent. ad valorem. On ready made clothing the tariff is advanced from 24 cents per pound and

WASHINGTON, March 4, 1867.

EXIT THIRTY NINTH CONGRESS.

No one of the thousands assembled within the American Capitol to-day, will forget the magnificent spectacle it has presented. No better proof of the deep seated regard this great body of men had upon the people could have been presented, than of the thronging spectators and the thronged halls, which were literally packed on the floor, in lobby and corridor and to the utmost extent of the great galleries.

There has been a continuous session since eleven on Saturday morning. At eight o'clock Sunday a recess was taken till seven in the evening. I have witnessed several night sessions but not one so decorous as this. When the last call was made at the early dawn, there were 110 men present to answer to their names, and all seemed alert and anxious to proceed with business.

Last night the session lasted till one, and commenced again at nine a. m. When it began two-thirds of the seats were occupied, and before ten, the galleries were crammed.

Going to the House, near the Capitol gates lingered for a few moments a group of members, which included Ashley, Boutwell, Butler, Bingham and several other radicals. At that moment a passing close carriagé was halted by a crossing vehicle and the occupant looked from the door. It was a passionate, worn, scarred, powerful visage, seamed all over with strife, turmoil, ambition and disappointment.—It was quickly withdrawn as the eyes fell on the group I have mentioned, but not before recognition; and keen eyes had noted the expression. It was that of an anguish-wrung man, baffled in the great game, but ready, if he only saw the way, to risk all again on another throw. The hunted beast at bay, might be a fair figure to express the look. The carriage whirled onward, and the face of Andrew Johnson disappeared. He was on his way to the Chamber wherein the President usually remains during the closing hours of Congress. One wondered if he would not much rather have signed an order to drive them out, than to complete the full round of their august power.

I shall not attempt to describe the scenes, events and incidents which were crowded in too rapidly for pencil or pen to tell them.

The announcement that the wool tariff had passed made by the Speaker, was greeted by applause from Western men. This act it is believed by many will close all attempts at obtaining more of a protective tariff than now exists.

The Bankrupt Bill and the Army Appropriation, it was also stated had been signed. In the latter a last kick was administered by Andy against the expiring giant who had so far thwarted him. This appropriation bill contained two obnoxious provisions—one fixing the Headquarters of General Grant at this place and rendering the President incompetent to order him elsewhere without consent of the Senate, and the other disbanding the rebel militia organizations of the South. Mr. Johnson signed the bill under protest, which however was not read until the 40th Congress was in session, a last but impotent piece of malice.—The inevitable is resisted till the last. The pluck of Mr. Johnson is worthy a better cause.

About eleven, on motion of Mr, Stevens, a permitted invasion of the House floor was made. The ladies poured in several hundred strong and made the sombre coated legislative gentlemen brilliant by their gay contrasting raiment.

At twelve, (some handy wight having put the clock back, the Thirty-ninth Congress gained ten minutes of surreptitious life) the Speaker's gavel descended and the farewell speech was made. The finest and full tones of the orator lent force to the graceful words, and as he closed, heartiest applause greeted the most universally popular gentleman who has ever occupied his high position.

House of Representatives of the Thirty-ninth Congress thus terminated its existence. Fitly it closed with the cheer and hope, the plaudits and the gratitude of thousands. I should like to photograph the scene, but my pencil cannot and the sunlight is not at my command. It was a great body, full of heroic impulses and with a history crowded with deeds of high emprize.

A NEW LIFE.

The ancient rites of regal succession, proscribe the formula. The dying eyes of the departed monarch do scarcely cease to quiver, ere from palace steps to market place brays forth the pursuivant's trumpet and the Heralds proclaim "The King is dead; long live the King."

The last lingering cadence of the speakers words have hardly died away, and the cheers with which they were greeted still echoed through the great Hall when an alert figure stepped forward, and announced that by authority of law the clerk of the House of the Thirty-ninth Congress called the House of Representatives in the Fortieth Congress to order.

"The King is dead; long live the King."

I shall tell but briefly of the following two hours and a half. The telegraph has brought you the outlines. As McPherson read thr roll, well known names created a sensation. Butler's was greeted with applause; as also was Logan's. When Morissey's name was read a general contusion ensued. The great faro banker sat on the Democratic side near the lobby door. He looked well—that must be confessed, was handsomely attired, and except for a reddened visage and slight air of feeling himself stared at, looked no more uncomfortable than the majority. Wood excited some notice. Brooks took the lead of the Democracy, and as you know commenced their game by a protest against further proceedings.

Kelley gave him a good shot when he asked in reply to a statement of Brooks that a Congress has never been so convened, by asking if the time he mentioned was in the age of telegraphs and railroads. Dawes of Massachusetts, further confused him by a reminder that Pierce had called an extra session at three days notice, and Wilson of Iowa in a brief reply knocked the argument to pieces by reminding Brooks that this Congress was convened according to law and he was recognizing the fact by appearing in his seat.

The election of a Speaker proceeded and resulted as known. When Marshall was nominated by the Democrats, it was asked where he was from, so utterly a non-entity was he.—The vote was very full, only four absentees, and was more than four times greater than the opposition.

The only marring of the perfect harmony which had hitherto accompanied was in the bad taste of Mr. Colfax as he assumed his seat reading from a prepared Mss. his speech of acceptance. It was inexcusable in a man of such fine tact as is the Speaker.

But I must close. The whole scene was grand and terminated fittingly, as it opened also.—the two greatest Legislative bodies of this century.

ITEMS.

C. P. Kimball has been rejected for Surveyor of your port. It is understood that Mr. McCulloch will nominate Oliver B. Dorrance, Esq., now an appraiser in the Boston Custom House.

An attempt to use the Kittery Navy Yard against your member has been killed by an adroit movement. The positions of naval storekeeper and chief engineer were declared Presidential appointments. The nominees there to have been rejected by the Senate.

SPECTATOR.

Excursion to Paris and Holy Land.

To the Editor of the Press:

Will you allow me through your columns to state in reply to questions that are coming in from all parts of the country, that although the above enterprise was started in Brooklyn, and a number of its citizens will join in it, yet it is not confined to that or any other place, but that the limited amount of room we have, is open to any and all under such restrictions as the committee have for mutual comfort adopted—viz: The applicants to be accepted must have good moral character, good health, and a fair share of good humor.

On this basis and this only we are rapidly making up what we think will be a good company.

Truly yours,
C. C. DUNCAN,
117 Wall Street.

Does the Negro Desire to Vote?

The New York Evening Post has a good thing in answer to this question. The President assigns, says the Post, among the reasons for his veto, that "the negroes have not asked for the privilege of voting; the vast majority of them have no idea what it means." A general officer in Louisiana wished to learn the negro mind on this subject, so he asked an old man—"Uncle Jo, would you like to vote?" Uncle Jo replied—"Sar, I used to walk fifteen miles to find out how a battle went." There was no need of further questioning.

—The Cincinnati Commercial is rather ironical on the proposition to lay a duty of a cent a dozen on Canadian eggs. Our own hens, it sagely observes, are to be protected against the pauper poultry of Canada!

The New Tariff on Wool and Woollens!

We publish below Mr. Bingham's tariff bill which became a law last Saturday:

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act, in lieu of the duties now imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned and embraced in this section, there shall be levied, collected and paid on all unmanufactured wool, hair of the alpaca, goat, and other like animals, imported from foreign countries, the duties hereinafter provided. All wools, hair of the alpaca, goat and other like animals, as aforesaid, shall be divided for the purpose of fixing the duties to be charged thereon, into three classes, to wit:

CLASS 1. Clothing wools: that is to say, merino, mestiza, metz, or metis wools, or other wools of merino blood, immediate or remote; down clothing wools and wools of like character with any of the preceding, including such as have been heretofore usually imported into the United States from Buenos Ayres, New Zealand, Australia, Cape of Good Hope, Russia, Great Britain, Canada and elsewhere, and also including all wools not hereinafter described or designated in classes two and three.

CLASS 2. Combing wools: that is to say, Leicester, Cotswold, Lincolnshire, down combing wools, Canada long wools, or other like combing wools of English blood, and usually known by the terms herein used; and also all hair of the alpaca, goat and other like animals.

CLASS 3. Carpet wools and other similar wools: such as Donskoi, native South American, Cordova, Valparaiso, native Smyrna, and including all such wools of like character as have been usually imported into the United States from Turkey, Greece Egypt, Syria and elsewhere.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the classification herein provided, a sufficient number of distinctive samples of the various kinds of wool or hair embraced in each of the three classes above named, selected and prepared under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, and duly verified by him, the standard samples being retained in the Treasury Department) shall be deposited in the custom houses and elsewhere, as he may direct, which samples shall be sealed by the proper officers of the customs to determine the classes above specified, to which all imported wools belong.

And upon wools of the first class, the value whereof at the last port or place whence exported to the United States, excluding charges in such port, shall be 32 cents or less per pound, the duty shall be 10 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, 11 per cent. ad valorum; upon wools of the same class, the value whereof at the last port or place whence exported to the United States, excluding charges in such port shall exceed 32 cents per pound, the duty shall be 12 cents per pound, and in addition thereto, 10 per cent. ad valorem.

Upon wools of the third class, the value thereof at the last port or place whence exported to the United States, excluding charges in such port, shall be 12 cents or less per pound, the duty shall be 3 cents per pound; upon wools of the same class, the value whereof at the last port or place whence exported to the United States, excluding charges in such port, shall exceed 12 cents per pound, the duty shall be 6 cents per pound.

Provided, That any wool of the sheep, or hair of the alpaca, goat, and other like animals, which shall be imported in any other than the ordinary condition as now and heretofore practiced, or which shall be changed in its character or condition, for the purpose of evading the duty, or which shall be reduced in value by the admixture of dirt or any other foreign substance, shall be subject to pay twice the amount of duty to which it would otherwise be subjected, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding:

Provided, further, That when wool of different qualities is imported in the same bale, bag or package, it shall be appraised by the appraiser, to determine the rate of duty to which it shall be subjected, at the average aggregate value of the contents of the bale, bag or package; and when bales of different qualities are embraced in the same invoice at the same price, whereby the average price shall be reduced more than 10 per cent. below the value of the bale of the best quality, the value of the whole shall be appraised according to the value of the bale of the best quality, and no bale, bag or package shall be liable to a less rate of duty in consequence of being invoiced with wool of lower value:

And provided, further, That the duty upon wool of the first class which shall be imported washed, shall be twice the amount of duty to which it would be subjected if imported unwashed, and that the duty upon wool of all classes which shall be imported scoured shall be three times the amount of the duty to which it would be subjected if imported unwashed. On sheepskins and Angora goat skins, raw or manufactured, imported with the wool on, washed or unwashed, the duty shall be thirty per cent. ad valorem; and on woolen rags, shoddy, mungo, waste and flocks, the duty shall be 12 cents per pound.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, and on such as may now be exempt from duty, there shall be levied, collected and paid on the goods, wares and merchandise hereinenumerated and provided for, imported from foreign countries, the following duties and rates of duties, that is to say:

On woolen cloths, woolen shawls, and all manufactures of wool, not herein otherwise provided for, 50 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem.

On flannels, blankets, hats of wool, knit goods, balmorals, woolen and worsted yarns, and all manufactures of every description, composed wholly or in part of worsted, the hair of the alpaca, goat or other like animals, except such as are composed in part of wool, not otherwise provided for, valued at not exceeding 40 cents per pound, 20 cents per pound; valued at above 40 cents per pound; and not exceeding 60 cents per pound, 30 cents per pound; valued at above 60 cents per pound not exceeding 80 cents per pound, 40 cents per pound; valued at above 80 cents per pound, 50 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, upon all the above named articles, 35 per cents ad valorem.

On endless belts or felts for paper or printing machines, 20 cents per pound and 35 cent ad valorem.

On bunting, 20 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 cent ad valorem.

On women's and children's dress goods and real or imitation Italian cloths, composed wholly or in part of wool, worsted, the hair of the alpaca goat, or other like animals, valued at not exceeding 20 cents the square yard, 6 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; valued at above 20 cents the square yard, 8 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 40 per cent. ad valorem: Provided, That on all goods weighing four ounces and over per square yard, the duty shall be 50 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem.

On clothing ready made, and wearing apparel of every description, and balmoral skirts and skirting, and goods of similar description, or used for like purposes, composed wholly or in part of wool, worsted, the hair of the alpaca goat, or other like animals, made up or manufactured wholly or in part by the tailor, seamstress, or manufacturer, except knit goods, 50 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, 40 per cent. ad valorem.

On webbings, belting, bindings, braids, galloons, fringes, gimps, cords and tassels, dress trimmings, head nets, buttons, or barrel buttons, or buttons of other forms, for tassels or ornaments, wrought by hand or braided by machinery, made of wool, worsted, or mohair, or of which wool, worsted or mohair is a component material, unmixed with silk, 50 cents per pound, and, in addition thereto, 50 per cent. ad valorem.

On Aubusson and Axminster carpets, and carpets woven whole for rooms, 50 per cent. ad valorem; on Saxony, Wilton, and Tourney velvet carpets, wrought by the Jacquard machine, 70 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on Brussels carpets wrought by the Jacquard machine, 44 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on patent velvet and tapestry velvet carpets, printed on the warp or otherwise, 40 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem: on tapestry Brussels carpets, printed on the warp or otherwise, 28 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on treble ingrain, three-ply, and worsted chain Venetian carpets, 17 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on yarn Venetian and two-ply ingrain carpets, 12 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on druggets and bookings, printed, colored, or otherwise, 25 cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, 35 per cent. ad valorem; on hemp or jute carpeting, 8 cents per square yard, on carpets and carpetings of wool, flax, or cotton, or parts of either, or of other material not otherwise herein specified, 40 per cent. ad valorem: Provided, That mats, rugs, screens, covers, lasecoks, hebdiges, and other portions of carpets or carpetings shall be subjected to the rate of duty herein imposed on carpets or carpeting of like character or description, and, that the duty on all other mats, made exclusively of vegetable materials, screens, hassocks, and rugs, shall be 45 per cent. ad valorem.

On oil-cloths for floors, stamped, painted, or printed, 40 valued at 50 cents or less per square yard, 35 per cent. ad valorem; valued at over 50 cents per square yard, and on all other oil-cloth, (except silk oil-cloth,) and on water-proof cloth, not otherwise provided for, 45 per cent. ad valorem; on oil silk cloth, 60 per cent. ad valorem.

Railroad from Montpelier to Portland.

It will be seen, by the proceedings which will be found in another column, that the railroad from Montpelier to Portland is progressing, so far as the organization of the Montpelier and St. Johnsbury, and Essex county railroads are concerned. The gentlemen who constitute the board of directors are well known and energetic men, who are not accustomed to put their hands to the plow and afterwards turn back. General Pitkin, who represents this end of the route on the board of direction, is one of our most active and wide-awake citizens, of great executive ability, and heartily enlisted in the enterprise. Mr. Dwinnell will ably represent the interest of the towns along the route in this county, and Messrs. Fairbanks, Morrill, and Hatch will be as effective and successful managers as any gentlemen who could possibly have been named. It is understood that engineers are at once to examine the route, and estimates are to be made, while meetings to awaken a public interest and secure subscriptions for the stock, are to be held as soon as convenient, along the proposed route.

We have already expressed our conviction of the necessity for this road; but its convenience and value impress themselves upon us the more we consider the project, as they will, we think, upon every one who considers the benefits of the proposed road.—Montpelier Freeman.

We learn from Vermont that a reconnoisance of the road from Montpelier to Conway, on the Portland route, has just been made by D. C. Linsley, Esq., one of the most eminent railroad Engineers in the country, who reports the route in the main exceedingly favorable, the only exception being a few miles through the Notch, but even here the line is entirely feasible. This we trust settles the question of the construction of this road, and the future status of our city.

MR. EDITOR:—The Star of Tuesday evening publishes a letter from Washington over the signature of "Portland," most of which is in laudation of the Representative from the third district. One would suppose in reading the letter, that Maine had no other Representative but Mr. Blaine. I am an admirer of the talented member from the third district, and give him credit for all that he is entitled to, as I do to Representatives Pike, Rice, Perham and Lynch.

Some of us have thought that Mr. Lynch represented this district very well, but it must be a mistake, as "Portland" is entirely oblivious of any such man.

Can you tell us, Mr. Editor, who it is that writes so sweetly over the signature of "Portland?" It must be some patriot willing to take office. Perhaps the following interesting item of news in the letter will help unfold why "Portland" is such an admirer of the Representative of the third district, and satisfy the curiosity of those who are desirous of knowing who "Portland" is:

"Quite a vigorous contest is being waged over the surveyorship of your port. It is unknown who will win. Col. Miller has the stronger force but may not succeed."

JOSHUA.

—It is said that Madame Henri Heine, widow of the German poet finds that she has been wrong in selling for a trifling sum the copyright of her late husband's posthumous works to the publisher, M. Michel Levy. At the same time she is very indignant about the publication of the last two volumes of Heine's correspondence which she asserts are full of indiscretions touching his private life.

State Items.

—A correspondent of the Argus, writing from Harpswell, and who very properly signs himself "A Copperhead," rejoices that that town "has redeemed herself from the thraldom of abolition rule."

—Our Democratic contemporary in this city chronicles the fact that the entire Democratic party of Bath have gone over to the Republican side of the house. He says they all voted for Dr. Putnam for Mayor at the late election. Dr. P. was the regular Republican nominee.—We congratulate our Democratic friends in that city on their progress, and hope, now that they have got on the right side, they will stay there.

—The appointments of Commander George H. Preble as Captain in the Navy, and of Jonathan Q. Barton of this State as an Assistant Paymaster, have been confirmed by the Senate.

—The Times learns that the Directors of the Portland and Kennebec Railroad propose to erect a new depot in Bath. Such an improvement cannot be made too soon.

—The Lewiston Journal says that late Saturday morning, 2d instant, Miss Cora Stevens, a young lady about 17 years of age, whose parents reside at Kendall's Mills, committed suicide by throwing herself into the Kennebec at Skowhegan. The young lady was employed at the Turner House, and left the table Saturday morning, saying she was going to comb her hair. Soon after tracks were discovered leading toward the river, and two boys soon appeared who said that they saw her leap into the river. Her body had not been discovered at last accounts. No cause is assigned for this rash act.

—The St. Croix Courier understands that Mr. Edwin Kierstead of Houlton has obtained the contract for supplying the timber for a five thousand ton ocean steamer shortly to be constructed at Boston. The timber will all be got in Aroostook county.

—The Belfast Journal says a man named Evans, of Monroe, cut his throat at his residence in that town on Monday last. The deed was done about noon, and the first intimation that the inmates had of it, was that Evans walked into the family sitting-room, with the blood streaming from the wound. His brother caught him in his arms, when he died at once.

—The Augusta Farmer says the barn of Mr. H. Dow, residing in Pittston, about a mile from the river, was entered on Thursday night of last week, and robbed of 20 bushels of barley, 16 bushels of Indian meal and five meal-bags. The theft was discovered the next morning and the rogues traced to Augusta, but the evidence obtained has not yet been sufficient to warrant their arrest.

—We learn on reliable authority that Rev. H. W. Beecher and family are to be of the excursion party for Paris and the Holy Land, which is to sail from New York during the approaching season, and of which C. C. Duncan, Esq., of New York, formerly of Bath in this State, is the manager.

—The present U. S. Senate is composed of 42 Republicans and 12 Democrats. Two of the latter—Doolittle of Wisconsin and Patterson of Tennessee, misrepresent their States and have been requested to resign. The House, so far as elected, consists of 124 Republicans and 25 Democrats. The States to elect will probably return 18 Republicans and 11 Democrats.

—It is rumored that Gov. Bullock will not be a candidate for reelection in Mass. Gen. Butler, Dr. Geo. B. Loring and Hon. John B. Alley are all named in connection with the successorship.

—E. P. Rosseau, a brother of the general, committed suicide in Louisville on the 14th, with a pistol. He was aged 44, and leaves a wife and several children.

—There is a large measure of courtesy yet left in Congress. When the drawing for seats came off in the House, the seat of Hon. E. B. Washburne was reserved for him, though he is absent in Europe. Mr. Stevens of Penn., was allowed to retain his old seat in the centre of the republican side, and ex-Governor Thomas of Maryland, in consideration of his age and character, was allowed to choose before the drawing began.

—A young man in Pittsburg, dying of the consumption, has made a will, leaving $5,000 to his betrothed. His sister with whom he resides, refuses to grant the lovers an interview, because she will get but $1,000.

—A New Zealand paper claims for the war with the Maoris the honor of being the longest war on record. With little intermission, it has continued from 1844 to the present day.

—In Boston $25,000 has been raised for the benefit of the suffering poor of the South.

—It is suggested that the remarkable quiet which obtained during the last hours of Congress is the fruit of Speaker Colfax's order prohibiting the sale of liquor in the Capitol building.

—An exchange calls attention to the fact that if the first Bureau Bill that President Johnson vetoed, had become a law, and been enforced by the President, the present frightful destitution among poor whites at the South would have been mostly avoided, or easily and speedily relieved! The sufferers, if they understood the matter, would have to blame not only their own madness and folly, but also the madness and folly of President Johnson and his copper confederate party.

—Raphael Semmes of Alabama renown, has taken editorial charge of the Memphis Bulletin. He opens his salute with the following sensible shot:—"The only way by which the South can benefit herself, or be of any service to the country, is to attend to her industrial interests and let politics alone."

—Deacon William Sterlin hung himself in his barn, near Woodstock, Vt., on Monday week.

—The Joint discussion between Gen. Walter Harriman, Republican candidate for Governor of New Hampshire, and John G. Sinclair, Esq., Democratic nominee for the same office, which has once been unavoidably postponed, is to come off in Portsmouth this evening.

—The N. H. Democrats must be near relatives of their Southern brethren. The Anson Advocate says they "are literally roasting Harriman, the negro candidate for Governor, alive!" That is the way the Southern Democrats have been accustomed to treat their negroes. We are suspicious, however, that on Tuesday night next the roasted man will be found without smell of fire upon his garments, while the roasters will be so crisped that their own mothers will disown them.

—Mr. Dion Bourcicault is in Paris, making arrangements for the production of two new plays which he has been commissioned to write by Ftench managers.

—The $25,000 left by Miss. Caroline Plummer, over ten years ago, for founding a farm reform school in Salem, Mass., has increased to $47,000, which it is proposed now to put to the use intended by the donor.

—Mr. Fessenden made the important statement in the Senate on Thursday, that the internal revenue receipts had fallen off lately at the rate of forty to fifty millions of dollars per year.

—Hon. Jesse D. Bright, who was kicked out of the United States Senate as a traitor in 1862, now declines to be nominated as a representative, saying: "I could not be induced to take a seat among such men as constitute the already elected majority in the next House of Representatives in Congress." The N. Y. Tribune trusts the 40th Congress will be able to survive this severe blow, but revives the unpleasant reminiscence that the treason of Bright was so glaring that even Garrett Davis aided in kicking him out.

—William Loyd Garrison, William Cullen Bryant, and Col. C. G. Hammond of Chicago, have been appointed to represent the American Freedmen's Union Commission at the World's Anti-Slavery Conference, to be held in Paris in the month of June next. The two latter gentlemen are already in Europe.

—A Boston paper says some excitement was created Tuesday afternoon at the Boston and Maine Freight Depot on discovering that three barrels each contained a dead human body. The discovery was accidentally made by the head of one of the barrels breaking out, and that of a human body being seen inside. The barrels were directed to "John W. Saxton, Brunswick, Me." Coroner Moore, was called but expressed the opinion that it was no case for him to interfere, and that the bodies had better be forwarded to their destination.

—Four men caught one hundred and sixty pounds of trout and cusk in Lake Winnepesaukee N. H., last week in forty-eight hours.

—Report says Wilkie Collins is incurably sick of consumption.

—There were fewer marriages, births and deaths in Massachusetts, in 1863 than in the preceding year.

—Mr. Morgan Smith, a colored tragedian, is drawing large audiences at Dundee, Scotland. A new drama, entitled "The Black Doctor," has been brought out by him with success.

Concerning Boys.

It might almost be said that Mr. Bartlett's lecture before the Christian Association last evening, was delivered in character, so boyish was the smoothly shaven face of the lecturer, so intense the sometimes exaggerated emphasis of his manner. According to Mr. Bartlett's formula, a boy is "a succinct hyeroglyphic of destructive progression," which being interpreted means that Young America is an active, noisy, riotous being, capable of an immensity of petty mischief, but likely to come to something by and by if his development is n't checked. Action, motion, is the chief characteristic of boyhood, as it is of life in the universe, the direct emanation of God's power.

Mr. Bartlett talked very sensibly and severely of the prevailing modes of education—taking boys out of the family circle and immuring them in cloisters, trying to teach them grammar when it it is languages they want, boring them with demonstrations while they want only the facts. Mr. Bartlett's criticism was purely destructive; he made no practical suggestions towards a better system. Of the abuses of children he spoke with especial earnestness and vigor—of the pampering and undressing by which boys are murdered in the Fifth Avenue, of the tyranny and brutality to which they are exposed in other social grades. Of course the Rev. Mr. Lindsley was punctually brought upon the platform at this juncture.—The lecturer observed that boys are no longer indentured; that they are better understood than formerly, and better educated; and apparently believed that the present generation will have a fair chance, as no doubt his great-great-grandfather thought before him, and his little-little-grandson will ruefully think after him.—Of boy's wit, let us repeat a single illustration from the lecture. A distinguished old Heavy-sides being called upon to address a room full of boys, mounted the platform, as serene as a summer's day, perfectly familiar with that sort of thing, had bored over it as often as any oil miner over half an acre of unproductive territory. "Well, my lads," he began, in an easy way, "well, my lads, what shall we talk about? what shall we, say, eh?" "Say amen," pipes a shrill voice in a remote corner, "say amen, and sit down!"

ARMY AND NAVY UNION.—A meeting of the Managers of the Union was held Tuesday evening, Dr. Gordon presiding. The names of twenty-nine gentlemen were proposed for membership, but some remarks being made, deprecating the hurried manner in which applicants for membership had been voted in, the names, on suggestion, were laid on the table until the next meeting, for investigation. Twenty-three members were admitted by ballot.

The Committee on furnishing the Association Room, was ordered to procure the necessary number of settees for the wants of the Union, and also to furnish each member of the Board of Managers with keys to the Hall and Library.

The use of the hall was tendered to the Military Order of the Loyal League, Commandery No. 1, for occasional meetings of that body; and a committee was raised and empowered to make necessary arrangements with all parties making such applications.

It was voted that the Rooms be open to members on Saturday evening, until further notice.

A vote of thanks was tendered to A. W. Bradbury, Esq., for his able and eloquent address, at the dedication of the Hall.

Votes of thanks were also passed to Rev. Mr. Gage, of Boston, for his excellent lecture, for which he declined to receive any compensation; and similar votes of thanks were tendered to Gen. John C. Caldwell, of Ellsworth, for his lecture; to the Forest City Band for music gratuitously furnished; and to the Portland Dramatic Club for their entertainment kindly given for the benefit of the Library; also to the Quartette Club for music furnished at the dedication; and to Rev. W. H. Fenn for his services as Chaplain on the same occasion.

D. P. H. Lockhart resigned his place as one of the Directors and on the Library Committee, in consequence of leaving the city, and Enoch Knight was chosen to fill the vacancy.

PRESENTATION.—Last Saturday evening, Francis Chase, Esq., Superintendent of the P. S. & P. Railroad, was agreeably surprised at the presentation to him of a valuable gold watch and chain by the employees of the road. The presentation was made by Messrs. Chancey Barrett, Payson Tucker and Joseph F. Mitchell, in behalf of the employees, who accompanied the gift with some appropriate remarks. Mr. Chase, entirely taken by surprise, responded in suitable terms.

The watch and chain are beautiful specimens of skill and workmanship, the former bearing an appropriate inscription. They will be valued by Mr. Chase more from the source from which they came than for their intrinsic worth. Subsequently Mr. Chase sent the committee the following acknowledgement:

Messrs, Chancey Barrett, Payson Tucker, and Joseph F. Mitchell, Committee:

GENTLEMEN:—The beautiful and valuable gold watch and chain presented me on Saturday evening last by the employees of the P. S. & P. Railroad Company, deserves a more fitting response than I was able to make on that occasion, taken entirely by surprise as I was.

I beg leave to express to you and through you to your associates, my hearty thanks for this generous gift, and to assure you, that I shall ever cherish it, as a token of the good feeling and kindly interest which I feel sure dictated the offering. Very truly,

Your friend,
FRANCIS CHASE.

PARADISE LOST AND THE APOCALYPSE.—Seldom does an exhibition of a panoramic nature create such a furor in our community as is now displayed by our citizens to witness these gorgeous representations of the immortal poet Milton. Jammed audiences seem to be the order of the day at each representation, and the longer it remains the more eager, larger and more enthusiastic do the audience become. It is not to be wondered at however, for true merit seldom goes unrewarded, which old adage proves true in this case, for certainly no exhibition of this character ever to our knowledge combined so many points of interest, or displayed so much artistic genius. Let all again to-night be on the alert and be gratified with passing an evening in the realms of imagination and paradise.

FAST DRIVING.—Some of the owners of fast horses are in the habit of using Congress street, especially the upper part, between High street and the "mile-post" for a course. It is dangerous to the citizens and should be stopped. A gentleman residing on that part of the street has taken the names of several persons who have been driving their horses on that thoroughfare, and, although he has no disposition to enter complaints against the parties, unless the practice is stopped, they will find themselves arraigned before the Municipal Court. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

FIRE PROOF SAFES.—The trial of Sanborn's steam fire proof safes will take place at Lincoln Park to-day. The fires will be kindled early this morning, and the safes will be opened for exhibition at half past five o'clock this afternoon. One of the safes is on exhibition near the Post Office.

RE-ESTABLISHED.—It will be noticed by advertisement, that Mr. A. Q. Leach has got back to the old spot, in a new and beautiful store, which he has stocked with a choice selection of dry goods. Give him a call.

LIQUOR SEIZURES.—Yesterday the Deputy Marshals seized small quantities of liquor in the shops of John Bradley and John Foley on York street and Abner Paine on Green street.

REAL ESTATE.—Mr. George M. Harding, Architect, has sold his genteel residence on Congress street to Mrs. N. P. Woodbury.—Price paid $6000.

W. F. TODD, at 25 Free street, is offering watches, clocks and jewelery at a very low figure for a short time. See advertisement.

MECHANICS' ASSEMBLIES.—Subscribers will take notice that the last Assembly will come off Friday evening, March 8th.

STATE STREET CHURCH.—One of the largest meetings ever held by this Society was had at the Chapel last evening, for the purpose of acting upon the letter of their pastor, Rev. Geo. L. Walker, resigning the pastoral charge of the Church. Rensellaer Cram, Esq., presided, and F. N. Dow was Secretary.

At a very large meeting of the Church on Monday evening, the following vote was unanimously adopted:

Voted, That a committee be chosen to express to our Pastor our deep sorrow in consequence of his resignation, and our earnest desire that he will withdraw his letter; or, if he cannot consent to do so, that he will allow us to postpone any action upon it for the present.

This vote was read by the chairman, and, upon the question of concurring with the Church, remarks were made by Messrs. H. M. Payson, R. Cram, J. W. Munger, E. A. Norton, R. Holyoke, Dr. Dana, P. Loring, F. K. Swan and J. O'Donnell. The speakers were unanimous in the opinion that the time had not yet arrived when the connection of Rev. Mr. Walker with the church and parish should be dissolved. And they were as unanimous that it would be for the interest of the parish that their pastor should let matters remain as they are, even if the church had to wait one or two years longer for him to recover perfect strength.

The question was taken by rising. The vote was unanimous in concurring with the Church, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. F. G. Messer, W. W. Woodbury, W. F. Milliken, F. O. Libby, Reuben Kent, F. K. Swan and R. Cram was appointed to wait upon Rev. Mr. Walker and inform him of the action of the meeting.

The meeting then adjourned to next Monday evening to hear the report of the committee.

NON-EXPLOSIVE.—Mr. L. P. Brown, No. 206 Fore street, offers the public a new article of burning fluid, or rather oil. We have not yet tried it, but the certificate of Dr. Cummings, State Assayer, shows that it has been tested to a very high degree of heat, and proved to be non-explosive. We refer the reader to Mr. Brown's advertisement and the certificate of Dr. Cummings, in our advertising columns.

SURVEYOR OF THE PORT.—By reference to the letter of our Washington correspondent, it will be observed that there is a probability of the appointment of Oliver B. Dorrance, Esq., as Surveyor of this port. Such an appointment, we hardly need say, will give satisfaction to all who have business at the Custom House, for he is one of the most affable men we know of.

REFORM SCHOOL.—Hon. George R. Barrows has resigned his position as Superintendent of the Reform School, and the Trustees have selected Hon. E. W. Woodbury, of Sweden, as his successor. The Governor and Council have approved the selection and appointed Mr. Woodbury to the place.

RECORDER OF MUNICIPAL COURT.—Llewellyn Kidder, Esq., of this city, has been nominated by Gov. Chamberlain, for the office of Recorder of the Municipal Court of this city. Mr. Kidder was for many years Clerk of the Courts for Somerset County, and is well qualified for the duties of the office.

THE NEW ENGINE.—The new locomotive which we saw a few days ago on the cars passing our office, was intended for the Brockville and Ottawa road, and not for the Bangor and Oldtown road, as we supposed. The initials on the tender "B. & O. R. R.," led us to suppose it was for the latter road.

FAIR AND LEVEE.—So great was the success and so pleasant the entertainment at Lincoln Hall last evening, that, by desire, it will be repeated this evening. The Forest City Band have, very kindly, volunteered their services for the occasion.

PERSONAL.—Judge Clifford returned from Washington Tuesday night, where he has been for three months past attending to his duties as one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States.

WELLCOME'S LIVER REGULATOR is a sure and safe cure for liver complaints. There is no other known remedy equal to it; thousands have shared its benefits, and gladly recommend it to others. jan5—lawtf

CLOTHING.—Mr. Nathan Goold has removed to his old place of business, No. 137 Middle street, where he is ready to give anybody "fits" that is in want of clothing.

BACK AGAIN.—It will be seen by a notice in another column that Messrs. Stevens, Lord & Haskell have removed to their new store Nos. 54 and 56 Middle street.

WANTED.—A copy of the Maine State Press of September 13, 1866, to complete a file. Any one having that number and will forward it to this office will do us a great favor.

THE attention of Merchants is called to the advertisement of "Book-keeper." The advertiser has had experience, and will come well recommended.

WE would invite the attention of all our readers to the Allen Mission Festival, which comes off next Monday night.

SAFES.—Attention is invited to the notice of the Marland safes and the recent trial of those in Boston, in our advertising column.

DR. WRIGHT has removed to Boody House, corner of Congress and Chestnut streets.

—Two fin-back whales came into Provincetown harbor last week. One of them was killed, but sank and could not be recovered. The other escaped.

WASHINGTON.

Government of the Rebel States.

Bill for the Admission of Colorado.

STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The Impeachment Question.

WASHINGTON, March 6.

An official publication was made to-day through the Department of State, of the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and the act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices.

An hour after the Senate adjourned to-day, the private Secretary of the President brought to the Capitol a large number of nominations, principally of postmasters, and army and navy officers, for the action of that body.

It is calculated that three or four hundred vacancies under the various branches of the Government are to be filled before the adjournment of the Senate.

A bill was introduced in the Senate to-day, by Mr. Harlan, for the admission of Colorado. It is substantially Mr. Edmond's amendment to the bill, so called, with an additional clause, continuing in force in terms, the present territorial equal suffrage law of Congress, and reserving the right to enforce it and the civil rights law in the State.

The following is a statement of the public debt of the United States on the 1st of March, 1867: Debt bearing coin interest five per cent. bonds, $198,091,350; six per cent. bonds of 1867 and 1868, $1,267,944,180; six per cent. bonds of 1881, $283,745,400; six per cent. 5-20 bonds, $954,839,000 do. Navy pension fund, $12,500,000. Total, $146,485,519,180. Debt bearing currency interest, six per cent. bonds, $12,922,000; three years compound interest notes, $141,308,880; three years 7-30 notes, $632,898,050. Total, $787,028,889. Matured debt not presented for payment, $1,457,668,907. Debt bearing no interest, United States, $376,235,-625. Fractional currency, $2,651,472,232. Gold certificates on deposits, $18,376,180. Total, $424,126,528.32. Total debt, $2,930,587,15.-Amount in the Treasury, in coin, $107,271,031.-12; currency, $52,255,368.27. Total, $159,823,-399.39. Amount of debt, less cash in the Treasury, $2,530,763,889.80. The foregoing is a correct statement of the public debt as appears from the books and Treasurer's returns in the Department, on the first of March, 1867.

(Signed) HUGH MCCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue to-day issued a circular to Assessors, calling attention to the changes made in the law by the act of March 2d. Instructions and ruling concerning assessments and amount of taxes will be issued in a few days. Where the present number of Assistant Assessors is insufficient for the proper assessment of the annual taxes, an additional number will be appointed upon the request of the Assessor. Care should be taken to specify the division for which they are needed. It will be some days before a supply of income blanks can be printed, and in the meantime, Assessors who have any of the forms of No. 24 prepared for use last year, can adopt them for present use. Form 24 1-2 can be used with the alteration of dates. Only a limited number of last year's blanks can be furnished from the office to those Assessors who desire to use them while waiting for the preparation of the new blanks.

At the Republican caucus to-night it was voted to refer the impeachment question to the Judiciary Committee, when appointed, and to take a recess next Monday until the 8th of May.

MEXICO.

CONFERENCE WITH EX-REBEL LEADERS.

Acapulco Abandoned by the Imperialists.

DEFEAT OF THE LIBERALS.

NEW YORK, March 6.

Vera Cruz correspondence says Isham Harris, an ex-rebel from Tennessee, has gone to Havana, where he expects to meet Breckenridge, Mason, Slidell and Benjamin.

The quartering of French troops on American citizens has been discontinued on the protest of the American Consul.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.

The city of Acapulco was abandoned by the Imperialists Feb. 19th, who were taken to San Blas by the French frigate Victoria. Three war vessels remained in the harbor of Acapulco but held a neutral position. The greatest order and confidence prevailed among the people.—The town will not be formally occupied by the Republicans until after the departure of the French vessels.

Gen. Alvarez, with 4,000 troops, marched from Cuernavaz on the 21st of February, for the city of Mexico, intending to co-operate with Gen. Porfiris Diaz, who was already in the valley of Mexico.

Taluca, the capital of the State of Mexico, having been occupied by the Liberal Gen. Tavara, the Imperialists was sent to recapture the place. About seven leagues from the city of Mexico he was met by the forces under Gen. Farcisco Velez, who was completely defeated by the Imperialists.

Another Steamer Burned at Sea.

Eleven Lives Lost.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 6.

The steamship Manhattan arrived here this morning, bringing Capt. West and part of the crew and passengers of the steamship Andalusia, from New York for Charleston, which was burnt at sea off Hatteras on Sunday evening. The fire originated forward of the boiler. In the confusion, Edward North, purser of Charleston, James McMullin, 3d assistant engineer, Frank Dougherty, and Antoine Martin, seamen, Jacob Larkman, pilot, of New York, Michael Griffin, porter, Hugh Farmer, stoker, and four gentlemen passengers, names not ascertained, became missing and are supposed to be lost. The Andalusia's cargo is a total loss. The hose carriage intended as a present from New York firemen to the Columbia firemen was on board.

Later.—The following passengers of the steamer Andalusia, which was destroyed by fire on Sunday night off Cape Hatteras, are known to be saved. Thomas C. Nelson, Augusta, Ga.; Bernard F. Burns, New York city; Mrs. Margaret Dixon, Charleston; George W. Ward, Conway Barnes. Three gentlemen, whose names are unknown, passengers, and Patrick Herman, fireman, are missing and supposed to be lost.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Seizure of Smuggled Goods at Belfast.

Proposed Peace Conference.

NEW YORK, March 6.

A Washington special says $30,000 worth of smuggled goods have been seized at Belfast, Maine. They were consigned to merchants of high standing in that city.

The State Department at Washington last December issued a circular to the South American republics engaged in a war with Spain proposing a peace conference, to be held in Washington on the 1st of April next. No reply has yet been received, but a favorable answer is expected soon.

The Post's special says the Alexandria election creates much talk in Congress.

It is now believed that the President will insist on equal suffrage as soon as he takes full military possession of the States lately in rebellion, under the reconstruction act.

The impeachment investigations will be prosecuted after the adjournment of Congress either by the Judiciary or a select committee.

NEWS BY THE CABLE.

LONDON, March 5.

The Duke of Richmond has declined the Colonial Secretaryship, and the Duke of Buckingham, to whom it was subsequently tendered, has accepted the position.

The Government promises that the provisions of the reform bill, which it is preparing for submission to Parliament, will be liberal in their character.

Bridges Carried away by the Flood.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 6.

We have had a four days storm and bridges are down in all directions. The bridge of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, at Whiteside Station, 110 feet high, has been carried off. Communication north and south is entirely cut off. The bridge over the Tennessee river at this place has been carried off. It was 900 yards long. The country is flooded.

Death of Bishop Soule.

BALTIMORE, March 6.

A dispatch was received here to-day, announcing the death at Nashville, Tenn., of Bishop Soule, of the Methodist Church, aged 84 years. It was announced this morning in the Southern Methodist Conference now in session in this city. He was the senior bishop of the Methodist Church in the United States.

Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND, Va., March 6.

A bill was reported in the Senate to-day for calling a State Convention. It is understood that the House committee will also report a similar bill.

XLTH CONGRESS...FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, March 6.

SENATE.

Petitions and resolutions were presented and referred.

The resolution of the House to appoint a joint committee to raise and equalize the pay of employees of the two Houses was agreed to.

Mr. Anthony introduced a concurrent resolution to revive and continue the joint resolution on retrenchment. Agreed to.

Mr. Anthony introduced a resolution to add to the standing committees of the Senate a Committee on Appropriations, to consist of seven members. Agreed to.

Mr. Doolittle rose and made a personal explanation in reply to the report of Mr. Hubbard, of the House committee on the New York Custom House.

Mr. Doolittle said: Mr. President—On Monday evening a newspaper was placed in my hands, in which I find a report of the committee of the last House of Representatives, submitted by Mr. Hubbard, of New York, which demands notice at my hands. Without any notice to me, without calling upon me for any explanation, this report by inference and not by direct charge, by inuendo and not by positive averment, endeavored to create the impression that I received or agreed to receive $5000, or some other pecuniary or profit, from Mr. Smythe, Collector of New York. This charge, whether made directly or indirectly, or by implication, whether sought to be sustained by proof or inuendo, is absolutely and unqualifiedly false, and from whatever source it comes, I pronounce it a falsehood; a vile and a cowardly slander. I go further, sir, and say that in the hundreds and perhaps thousands of cases in which, during the ten years I have been in this body my recommendation has been sought and obtained, there is not a single instance in which any kind of pecuniary consideration of the value of one cent, was ever expected or received directly or indirectly by me. I have yet to see that man upon this earth who would dare look me in the face and make me such an offer. Upon this and all other matters I am ready to meet the most searching scrutiny. So much for myself. But my duty is not yet done. The good name of my son has been called in question on this subject. I prepared a statement to submit to the Senate, but as I am told the testimony is not published, I shall therefore, withhold it. Meantime, I will only say that when the truth is fully known, there will be found nothing to reflect dishonor on his character as a soldier or a citizen.

At the close of Mr. Doolittle's remarks, Mr. Patterson rose for a similar purpose, and likewise denounced the charges and insinuations in Mr. Hubbard's report as false in its charges, false in its intentions and false in its inuendoes.

Mr. Patterson said: Mr. President—In looking over the papers I see I am involved in the same charges that are made against the Senator from Wisconsin, that of having received $5000 from Mr. Smythe. I will dispose of this question in few words. There is no direct charge made. It is an intended charge. All I have got to say is, it is false; false in its charges; false in its intention; false in its inuendos. I never received a copper from Smythe. If the Senate will permit me to say so, I will say it is as false as hell.

Mr. Harlan introduced a bill to admit Colorado, and gave notice of a bill to construct a military and freight railroad from the Mississippi to the Atlantic coast.

Mr. Sumner, according to notice, introduced a bill to provide a republican form of government for the late rebellious States. In doing so he said he did not forget that Congress had already passed what is known as the military bill, which has in it certain elements of reconstruction. But at the time of the passage of that bill he did not attempt to disguise his sense of its incompleteness. It is not what loyal people South have a right to expect from Congress. It contemplates reconstruction, but does not supply its proper machinery. Something more is needed in order to give the loyal people of those States the protection which they have a right to expect. The bill is a very lengthy one, and provides for the re-establishment of civil government on a basis of loyal government. Ordered to be printed and tabled until the committees are formed.

Mr. Wilson introduced the following, which was ordered to be printed, a joint resolution declaring the municipal offices of Alexandria, Va., to be vacated:

Whereas, persons holding municipal offices in Alexandria, Va., have refused to obey and execute the laws of the United States, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the municipal offices of the city of Alexandria, Va., are hereby declared to be vacated, and persons exercising authority in said offices are forbidden to hold or exercise authority in the same, and any person who shall attempt to hold any of said offices, or exercise authority in the same shall, on conviction, be imprisoned for not less than one year and pay a fine of not less than $100.

The Senate at 12.35 adjourned.

HOUSE.

The first business in order was a motion to suspend the rules to permit Mr. Price to introduce a bill amendatory to the national currency act. The bill prohibits national banking associations from withdrawing either in form of dividends or otherwise, any portion of their capital, and from making dividends greater than their profits. Mr. Price proposes to have the bill referred to a select committee, to be composed of such members of the late Committee on Banking and Currency as are members of the present House.

After discussion the House refused to suspend the rules, and, therefore, the bill was not introduced.

Mr. Thomas presented a petition of J. J. Stewart, contesting the seat of Mr. Phelps, of Indiana. Referred to the Committee on Elections.

The States were then called for resolutions.

Mr. Hubbard introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish statements showing what number of collectors of customs, naval surveyors, inspetors of customs and aids to the revenue, and other officers have been removed since the 3d of March, 1866, increased compensation paid to their successors, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Ward introduced a resolution reciting the statement made by Mr. Blair in a public speech at Baltimore, that the testimony given in behalf the Government on the assassination trials was subponæd, and that Mrs. Surratt was convicted and executed without any evidence of her guilt, and directing the appointment of a select committee of three to examine thoroughly into such charges, and report thereon with authority to send for persons and papers, and to sit during the recess of Congress. The resolution was finally withdrawn.

At 12.30 P. M. the House adjourned.

Letter from Collector Smythe of New York.

NEW YORK, March 6.

A long lettter from Collector Smythe to President Johnson in refutation of the charges of the committee on retrenchment and reform, will be published in the New York papers to-morrow morning. Collector Smythe affirms that the New York Custom House was never more economically, purely and efficiently administered than by him. Further reforms and economies are to be accomplished as fast as practicable. He has weeded out incompetency, ignorance, intemperance and vice from it, and filled the vacancies with competent and honest men from both political parties, and men of no politics. The business of the Custom House has steadily increased, but the necessary expenditures have not increased one-fifth of what the House Committee on Expenditures report. The general order of business was first placed in the hands of E. C. Johnson & Co., without any payment, agreement or understanding as to any profits they might make, and was subsequently transferred to Myers & Smith at six, without any payment, agreement or understanding expressed or implied, with orders to reduce their changes to a basis satisfactory to merchants. But one complaint, and that trivial, has been made from that day to this. Mr. Smythe repeats that he never received one dollar from this source in any form, directly or indirectly, and of course never distributed what he never received. It appears from the letter that Mr. Smythe is satisfied with his other emoluments, and once formed the purpose of distributing the whole amount of profits on general orders among certain friends, with a portion reserved to protect the clerks against electioneering assessments, but this purpose, as he testified under oath to the committee was unknown to most of them, was never executed and was speedily dismissed from his mind.

N. B. Beef—Extra and first quality includes nothing but the best large, fat, stall-fed Oxen; second quality includes the best grass-fed Oxen, the best stall-fed Cows, and the best three year old Steers; ordinary consists of Bulls and the refuse of lots.

Sheep—Extra includes Cossets, and when those of inferior quality are thrown out of the lot.

REMARKS.—Cattle: Receipts for the past week in this market were 616 head, against 516 last week.—The market was pretty firm, and prices established last week have been fully sustained. Some of the drovers that paid rather more for their stock than they did last week, thought the market hardly as good. Quality equnily as good as last week.

Sheep—A large portion of the Sheep were contracted for last week. Quality about the same. Not any material change in prices.

Town Elections.

GORHAM.—In this town we omitted to give the name of John C. Summerside, town Clerk, who was elected by a unanimous vote. He is a Republican.

LIMINGTON.—In this town the Republicans, for the first time, elected a full board of town officers, as follows:

Moderator—William M. McArthur. Town Clerk—Isaac L. Mitchell. Selectmen—Freeman McKenney, Josiah E. Chase, Edward B. Rendall. Treasurer—Abram Winslow. S. S. Committee—Edward Bragdon, Jr. Auditor—Benning Parker. Town Agent—Leander Moody.

BRIDGTON.—The annual election on Tuesday, 5th inst., resulted as usual, in the choice of officers all true Republicans:

Moderator—S. M. Harmon. Clerk—George G. Wight. Selectmen, Assessors and Overseers of the Poor—George E. Chadbourne, Francis B. Caswell, Edwin F. Fessenden. Treasurer—Augustus Perley. Agent—S. M. Harmon. Auditor—Luke Brown. S. S. Committee—Albert Gould.

Republican Town Committee 1867—Charles E. Gibbs, Luther Billings, Wm. W. Cross, Edward R. Staples, George H. Brown.

NAPLES.—Moderator—J. G. Cannell. Clerk—Robert Edes. Selectmen—Washington Bary, Zebulon Jackson, Samuel F. Perley. Treasurer—B. F. Wentworth. Agent—John Church.

Politics did not enter into the contest and the ticket was elected almost unanimously.

STANDISH.—The whole Republican ticket was elected by about 30 majority. The following are the officers:

Moderator—M. D. L. Lane. Clerk and Treasurer—Wm. H. Dresser. Selectmen and Assessors—Samuel O. Paine, James K. Emery, Merritt I. Paine. Superintending School Committee—Silas Baker. Auditor—William Paine. Collector and Constable—John L. Chase.

CORNISH.—The following are the town officers elected on Monday. They are all Republicans except first Selectman and School Committee:

Moderator—Samuel Poindexter, Jr. Clerk—Roscoe G. Smith. Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor—Ammi Boynton, Horace A. Pike, Ivory B. Week. Treasurer and Auditor—Albert G. O'Brion. Superintending School Committee—Albert G. Andrews.

THE POPE AND THE ITALIAN PEOPLE.—The Florence correspondent of the New York Times speaks as follows of the anticipations which many connect with the event of the death of Pio Nono:

There is a class of optimists who look forward to the death of Pius IX., not only to find the solution of the Roman question, but a complete change in the Catholic system. These honest people will have it that there is to be no Pope after Pius IX., and Rome is to be no longer the Eternal City of the Pontiffs. Popes are to go the way of the Cæsars, and are no longer to have a part in the conduct of human affairs. Each Catholic Sovereign is to Pope his own faithful subjects, and at Rome hereafter Il Re Galantuomo is to be the chief man. This great weight of Bishops resting on the breast has nearly pressed the breath out of the spiritual body. These angels, which have so long governed, are found not to be descended from a very lofty sphere, but eat and drink and enjoy the goods of this world like very common mortals; and they will cling to power also like vulgarest President or Emperor. In spite of their hopeful calculations, these enthusiasts will find for a long time yet Popes and Bishops on their backs, clinging with as cruel an obstinacy as the old man in the story astride of the sailor's shoulders. The death of a single man, to be followed by the overthrow of a system, is less to be relied upon as a means of social salvation than that slower process which is already going on of educating the people to a higher standard of theological and political views.

PROPOSALS

For Dredging a New Channel through Shepard's Point Shoal and Hallowell Shoal in the Kennebec River, at Hallowell, Maine.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED AT THIS OFFICE, until 10 o'clock A. M., on Tuesday, the 26th Day of March next, for dredging a new channel though "Shepard's Point" and "Hallowell" Shoals, in Kennebec River, with a view to obtaining a clear channel seven feet deep at low water, and sixty feet wide on the bottom, with sides having a slope of two feet to one foot rise.

The channel will first be excavated through Shepard's Point Shoal, for a distance of about 450 yards, requiring 16,000 cubic yards of excavation, more or less; and afterwards, through Hallowell Shoal, for a distance of 575 yards, requiring 19,000 cubic yards of excavation, more or less. The amount of excavation may be increased or diminished, as the Engineer in charge may direct, after further examination of the river.

The material taken from the Shoals is to be deposited in the river, in such manner as may be required by the Engineer in charge, and in such localities as may be designated by him, not exceeding 650 yards in distance from Shepard's Point, above and below it.

In making proposals, bidders must state the price per cubic yard of excavation, with the understanding that the work executed is to be ascertained by measurement of the channel after dredging; and, of such excavation only as has been actually made to obtain the required dimensions: with the understanding, also, that the price stated is to include the depositing of the material taken out, in such localities as may be designated, within the limits above named.

The work must be commenced as soon as such operations are practicable, and be completed on or before the 20th of November next.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a written guarantee signed by two responsible persons, in the required form, that the bidder will, when called on, if his proposal be accepted, enter into a contract and bond, with good, and sufficient security (the sureties and their places of residence to be named in the proposal) for the true and faithful performance of his contract. The contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, and be subject to the approval of the Secretary of War.

The undersigned, however, reserves the right to exclude the bids of any persons who, there is reason to believe, will not faithfully and promptly perform the contract; also, any informal bids, as we I as those that are above a responsible price for the work; and no member of Congress, officer or agent of the Government, nor any person employed in the public service, shall be admitted to any share in the contract, or any benefit which may arise therefrom.

Payments will be made in two installments; the first on the completion of the channel through Shepard's Point Shoal, and the second, on the completion of the whole work—20 per cent. to be reserved from the first payment, until the whole work is finished, and to be forfeited in the event of the non-fulfitment of the contract in the time and manner as therein required.

Persons desiring to make proposals, will please call on the undersigned at his office, in Morton Block on Congress Street, for forms of same, and for more definite information, if desired; and, on transmitting them, will endorse thereon "Proposals for improvement of Kennebec river."

POETRY.

Beranger on Greece.

[1824.]

Autumn returns, and on his humid wing
Brings me again renewing grief,
Forever timid, poor, and suffering,
My joys are fading both in flower and leaf.
Take me away from dread Lutecec;
My eyelids long to greet a fairer sky.
From early youth my dream was still of Greece,
There is it, there, that I would wish to die.

In vain! No more translate me Homer's lays,
For I was Greek; Pythagoras speaks well.
At Athens born, in Pericles' proud days;
I stood by Socrates within his cell.
The wonders wrought of Phidias I praised,
And saw illusus fringed with blossoms shy,
And wakened bees upon Hymettus chased,
There is it, there, that I would wish to die.

Gods! But one day to dazzle my poor sight,
To warm in that sun's ray my hearts chill core,
And Liberty, who far discerns her Knight,
Cries. "Thrasybulus is our conqueror."
Come let us go! The barque is swinging near.
Rock me, O sea, with gentle lullaby!
Let but my muse Pircan echoes hear,
There is it, there that I would wish to die.

The sky of Italy is very fair,
But slavery obscures the happy blue:
Sail on, O pilot seek a further air,
Sail onward where the daylight is more true.
What are those waves? What is this savage rock?
What shining soil gives greeting to my eye?
Here tyranny has suffered the last stroke;
There is it, there, that I would wish to die.

May I, barbarian, on thy sea-shore stand!
Athenian Virgins! Give my lyre new wings!
For Greece I quit a base and sordid strand,
Where genius has become the slave of kings.
My persecuted lyre, fair Grecians, save!
And it your hearts be softened by one sigh,
Mingle my ashes in Tyrtous' grave,
For under thy loved heaven I come to die.

Pleasing Miscellany.

Byron's Maid of Athens.

In speaking of Athens, perhaps I ought to omit the Maid of Athens, immortalized by Byron—now Mrs. Black, of the Pieræus. The maiden name of this lady was Theresa Maria. She was one of three sisters, all of whom were great beauties in their day. One of them is the wife of Mr. Pittakys, the well known Superintendent of Antiquities at Athens. The third I believe, is not living. Lord Byron's lines were written in 1810—forty years ago: and forty years make a considerable difference in the appearance both of man and woman; so that the language of the noble poet cannot be expected to apply in all respects to the present day. It is a common thing for travellers in Greece to call on Mrs. Black with no other introduction than Zoe mou sas agapo. Not thinking this accidental celebrity any ground for so impertinent a proceeding, it was a long time before I had the pleasure of meeting this lady, as she lives in the Pieræus, and now seldom makes her appearance in Athens. But I was invited one evening to take tea and pass the night at the house of a friend in Pieræus. I found, on arriving there, that the family of Mr. Black were expected, and no other guests.

They soon came in—Mr. and Mrs. Black, and their daughter, a young lady of eighteen or twenty; and I had the felicity of sitting the whole evening on a sofa between the old Maid of Athens and the young Maid of Athens—a highly poetical situation, as it seemed to me, with the beauty of the past on one hand, and the beauty of the present on the other. Certainly Mrs. Black shows traces of the loveliness which inspired the muse of Byron; and if she did not, the magnificent beauty of the daughter is sufficient and most satisfactory demostration that it once existed in the mother. Let me add, that Mrs. Black is an excellent house-keeeper, her house being one of the best ordered in all Greece, But if there is one thing in which she surpasses the rest of her sex, it is the art of pickling olives. The first time I tasted one of her olives at the house of a friend, I could not restrain an exclamation of surprise at their delicious flavor. "Those olives," responded my entertainer, "Were pickled by the fair hands of the Maid of Athens." A day or two afterward I received a jar of the fruit from the Maid of Athens, which I keep as a precious memorial, with a fragment of the Parthenon, and a cane cut from the olive grove of Plato.—[Felton's Lectures on Greece.

COOL.—Out at Columbus, in Ohio, lives a little, weazen, dried up, shabby-looking politician, named Joe G——. He is the most insignificant-looking specimen of humanity one would meet in a month, but smart as a steel-trap and any one who would take him for a fool will find himself sadly deceived. He is notorious for furnishing the finest specimens of cool impudence of any man in Ohio. The following anecdote, illustrative of this trait of his character is told of him:

Some years ago, being in Philadelphia, he received an 'introduction to a prominent divine of that city. The reverend gentleman invited Joe to attend his church on a certain Sunday, which invitation was accepted. They entered the sacred edifice together. It was one of the first churches in the city, and its members were fashionable and aristocratic in the extreme.—The minister put Joe into an elaborately-furnished pew well to the front. Joe nestled comfortably down into one corner of the same, and looked about as interesting and contented as a toad under a cabbage-leaf.

After a while the owner of the pew arrived, and at once gave signs of intense disgust and indignation at the presence of the interloper. He looked at Joe, looked at the pew, scowled magnificently, and finally, after fumbling through his pockets some time, drew forth a card and wrote on it with a pencil: "This is my seat, Sir!" and, with an air of the loftiest contempt tossed it over to Joe.

The latter took it up; read it with lamb-like meekness peculiar to himself, and then, with the most delightful coolness, wrote in reply:—"It's a devilish good seat! What rent do you pay?" and tossed the card back to its owner. The latter took it, looked at it with the most profound astonishment a minute or two, and then a broad grin overspread his countenance. He evidently enjoyed the sublime brass and coolness of his new acquaintance, and when service was over he approached Joe, apologized for his rudeness, invited him to his house, gave him the best he had, and treated him with the utmost respect and consideration during his sojourn in the city.—Harpers' Magazine.

POINTED ILLUSTRATION.—A correspondent of the Milwaukie Sentinel says that the following colloquy recently occurred between a Democratic politician and a quiet, observing Republican. It hits the nail on the head, and is too good to be lost:

Democrat—I demand to know, sir, if the States lately in rebellion are in the Union or out of the Union? Just answer that if you will.

Republican—The question is well illustrated in your own personal history. Four years ago, you united with the church here; and, if I am rightly informed, you have been rather a hard member to manage; and lately charges have been preferred against you for downright misconduct, and you have been suspended until your case can be examined, and your fitness for membership determined. Now, sir, I demand to know whether you are in the church or out of the church? The Democrat appeared to see the point, and left.

CONTINENTAL NAMES.—A European correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, makes this observation:

"In traveling on the Continent, an American is liable to make mistakes from not knowing the current method of spelling the names of places. It was some time before I learned that 'Aaschen,' which I frequently saw, meant Aix la Chapelle. And who would imagine that 'Firenze' was the Italian for Florence? The French name for the Hague is 'La Haye,' while the Dutch is something yet more different. The German way of spelling Cologne is 'Koln,' and Munich is 'Munchen.' Antwerp appears on the map as 'Anvers,' and Mechlin as 'Malines.' Here in Italy, Naples is 'Napoli,' and Leghorn, 'Livorna.' An Italian would not understand you in speaking of Venice. He writes it Venezia, and pronounces it 'Vay-nay-tze-a.'"

A FUNNY STORY.—An incident in the history of the rebel Congress, suppressed at the time, has lately come to light. A short time before the fall of Richmond, while the rebel Congress was deeply concerned about the cruelty and barbarity of the North, a woman of that city walked into the House of Representatives and attacked three members with a cowhide, castigating them mercilessly. At last the Speaker caught the virago in his arms, and held her there until she went into hysterics. She said her intention was to chastise the entire body because of its abuse of the North. The House passed a resolution to keep the matter secret, and the Richmond papers never mentioned it.

Two Friends meeting, one remarked, "I have just met a man who told me I looked exactly like you."

"Tell me who it was, that I may knock him down," replied his friend.

"Don't trouble yourself," said he; "I did that myself at once."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Astonishing Curative Powers of Cold Medicated Inhalation,

AS PRACTICED BY

DR. MORSE.

LETTER NO. XXXI.

As I have in my preceeding letters so fully described the symptoms and pathology of Catarrh, and the various diseases of the air passages, and pointed out their important relation to consumption, and other diseases of the chest. I shall in the present instance, content myself by furnishing the following strong proofs of their curability.

To show the permanency of cures effected by Inhalation, I will here refer to persons now living in the enjoyment of good health, whose cases were pronounced hopeless and incurable some years since, and were cured by Dr. Morse's Remedies, mostly through the medium of Inhalation. Hundreds of other similar cases might be mentioned.

CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. Sophia A. Fitz, formerly of Bath, now a resident of Oak Hill, Brunswick, of this State, was reduced to a very low state by sickness in 1862. It was soon manifest that her lungs were laboring under tuberculous ulceration, which was fast wasting her life away. Her physician thought the structure of her left lung was almost destroyed. Her case was considered hopeless and incurable by all of her friends and physician. She was placed under the care of Dr. Morse of Portland, by whom a perfect cure was effected, mostly through the medium of Inhalation. Mrs. F. has enjoyed better health since than ever before.

ASTHMA.

Mrs. Dorcas Lawrence of Falmouth, this State, was in a feeble state of health for a long time, caused by Asthma, or Phthisic, difficulty of breathing, and other alarming symptoms, which caused much suffering, which rendered her case hopeless in the minds of her friends. She was restored to a perfect state of health by the use of Dr. Morse's Remedies, mostly through the medium of Inhalation.

PNEUMONICA.

Mrs. Samuel Hill of West Buxton, in this State, was severely troubled with Pneumonica, a disease affecting the lungs, their membrane or motive power, characterized by irregular, impeded or painful respiration.

After long suffering, a council of three physicians was called. After consultation, they gave no encouragement of a cure. She was placed under the care of Dr. Morse of Portland, and in a few months restored to perfect health, mostly through the medium of Inhalation.

HEMORRHAGE.

Rev. William Leavitt, brother of Mrs. Hill, having heard of his sister's recovery, applied to Dr. Morse. His disease was Hemorrhage of the Lungs, which caused great debility. He was obliged to relinquish preaching, and entertained doubts about ever being able to resume his vocation. He placed himself under the care of Dr. Morse, and in a few months was restored to health through the medium of Inhalation, and is at present preaching to the people of West Buxton.

HEMORRHAGE.

Mr. Isaac L. Barnes, of Brunswick, of this State, was troubled with Hemorrhage of the Lungs, and otherwise affected, in 1862, had lost over thirty pounds of flesh, was troubled with palpitation of the heart, bled one pint a day for six days in succession, reduced very weak. Mr. Barnes was fully restored to health by the use of Dr, Morse's Inhaling Remedies. Still enjoys good health.

HEMORRHAGE.

Rev. Horace Norton, of Meadville, Pa., after being reduced to a very low state of health, by Hemorrhage from the Lungs, was so feeble that he could not walk five rods without assistance. Came to Portland, placed himself under the care of Dr. Morse. He gradually improved until he was fully restored to health. His weight increased from 121 pounds to 165 pounds.

ASTHMA.

Mr. James A. Page, of Bloomfield, (afterwards removed to Aroostook) was severely troubled with Asthma from a child, often so badly that he could not perform any labor for months together. It was a common thing for him to be obliged to sit up all night, with much difficulty of breathing. Mr. Page was radically cured through the medium of Inhalation, obtained of Dr. Morse.

CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, &c.

Mr. Isaac Robinson, of East Vassalboro', was severely troubled with pulmonary disease for five years, with Chronic Catarrh, Bronichitis, severe hoarseness; could not speak above a whisper for several months, during which time he was confined to his room; a large abscess formed on one lung, which broke and was discharged through the tubes out of the mouth. His physician thought his case hopeless. He was placed under the care of Dr. Morse, and gradually improved by the use of the Inhaling Remedies, until he was fully restored to health.

CHRONIC CATARRH.

Mr. Silas W. Berry, of Waterville, this State, was troubled with Chronic Catarrh and pulmonary disease, which was the cause of frequent spells of Asphyxia, or suspended animation. He had lost five sisters who died with consumption, and was much alarmed about himself. Mr. Berry was fully restored to health by the use of Dr. Morse's Inhaling Remedies.

AN IMPORTANT CURE.

Mrs. Caroline Atkinson, of Cornish, of this State, a widow whose husband gave his life to his country in our recent civil war, and daughter of Mr. Samuel Knight, of the same town, was seriously attacked by a disease of the Lungs. She had fastened upon her dangerous symptoms, by which she was prostrated very low, and unable to be removed for several days, and was given up to die. Other organs were seriously affected, and their natural secretions suppressed. In this condition she placed herself under the care of Dr. Morse. Through the medium of his Inhaling Remedies she was fully restored to health, and is now a hale and hearty woman.

Dr. Morse has the names of more than two thousand persons on his books, who have been cured of Catarrh in its various forms, and it is safe to say that all the above named cases were caused by Catarrh, or proceeded from that complaint.

Persons at a distance can be treated by letter.

Your obedient servant,

CHARLES MORSE,

Physician for Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, No. 5 Deering Street, Portland, Me.

VINELAND.

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS, in a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia, by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass, Corn, Tobacco, Fruit and vegetables. This is a great fruit County. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits, Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvement. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm Land, twenty acre lots and upwards, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality, north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale

Openings for all kinds of business, Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power with room can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural a paper giving full intormation, and containing reports of Solon Rob inson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of the Tribune; "It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies."

BORDEN'S

CONDENSED APPLE JUICE

Patented 22d July, 1862,

—OR—

ROKOMEKA JELLY,

MADE from the pure Juice of the Apple, before it has commenced to fermentation has commenced. It is excellent when eaten with meats, as a substitute for Currant Jelly. Diluted, one part to five or six of water, it makes a grateful drink for the sick. By diluting in six times the quantity of water, and allowing it to ferment, new cider can at any time be had. Apple Pies, Tarts, &c., of an excellent quality, are made as follows, viz:—To crackers, soda biscuit or dried bread crumbs, soaked very soft, add two or three spoonfuls of the Jelly, diluted in enough hot water to make the whole subs ance quite thin; sweeten and flavor to suit the taste: Tarts and Lemon Pies are made in the same way, except that they require less cracker and more Jelly. It is also excellent for jelly cakes. One pound of the Jelly has the strength of five lbs. dried apples.

THROAT.

Mrs. Manchester

THE INDEPENDENT

CLAIRVOYANT!

AND

Eclectic Physician!

From 618 Broadway, New York, has returned to Portland, and can be consulted at her rooms at the Preble House.

Certificates of Cures.

This is to certify that I have been cured of Catarrh in the worst form, by Mrs. Manchester. I have been to New York and Boston, have paid out large sums of money, and was never benefitted, but in most all cases made worse. I saw Mrs. M. in June. She told me my case was a bad one, the tubes in the throat and upper parts of the lungs had become very much affected, all of which I knew was the case. I commenced taking her medicine in June, and can truly say that I am now a well man. I am a trader, and in the habit of talking a great deal, and her curing me will be the means of hundreds of dollars in my pockets, as now I can talk without hurting me. Go and consult her, and you will be perfectly satisned.

S. H. STEPHENS, Belfast, Me.

BANGOR, May 15, 1866.

MRS. MANCHESTER—Dear Madam:—When you were in Bangor last summer, I called to see you with a child of mine that had been sick for four years. I had taken her to a number of physicians, and none could tell what ailed her or even her symptoms. You examined her case
